Letter from the Competitions Chair

Dear NDA Competitors,

On behalf of your Competition Committee, congratulations for surviving another show season! We hope you and your dressage partner enjoyed some show time camaraderie, reached a milestone or two, and are now setting new goals for next year!

Dressage is one of the few (only?) equine disciplines that riders choose to compete in only enough shows to earn their qualifying scores. I encourage you to reconsider NDA's recognized schooling shows and Cornhusker Classic more as community-building events, an opportunity for your horse to get used to new experiences, a place where you can chat about your 20 meter circle challenges with people that understand your hysteria, and create some new "remember that time?" memories that you'll enjoy re-hashing 50 years from now. In 2019, don't show because you have to—show because you want to!

I think it's important that you are aware of a growing Region 4 challenge . . . show schedule congestion. The Cornhusker Classic lost money for the first time in years due to low attendance (and we were the lucky ones as many shows this summer canceled or lost thousands of dollars). Nebraska dressage is fortunate to have strong support but there are only so many horses and riders competing, especially in rated shows. Too many times this year show managers had to choose between canceling last minute or running a show at a loss since judges' fees and travel expenses are fixed and show rings that aren't full mean there isn't enough income to cover these expenses. While this is an issue USDF and Region 4 will need to address, you can help by supporting non-profit shows whenever possible and sending your entries a month before the show to help the managers plan.

Please know that your hard work and investment in the sport doesn't go unnoticed. We are grateful for the countless volunteer hours our NDA members have given and the many dollars that our competitors and donors have sacrificed to make our shows possible. It takes a village of pony-loving crazies to support a successful and active organization like NDA, but when we all give a little, the load is lighter for everyone! Your suggestions and feedback to improve our show series are always welcome.

Best wishes for a successful off season!

Jennifer Rawlinson and the NDA Competitions Committee

Don't miss the highly anticipated NDA Annual Awards Banquet!

With the weather most likely turning a bit too cold to enjoy riding outside, the Ashland Country Club will once again be the site of the NDA annual End of the Year Awards Banquet, with their fantastic brunch spread the highlight of our weekend.

They are offering a delicious brunch buffet menu again, featuring quiches, fresh fruit, pastries, juice and coffee. And let's not forget the mimosas!

The cost will be $18 for adults and $9 for children 12 and under.

Plan to arrive for coffee, cocktails and conversation at 10:30, with brunch and the silent auction following at 11:00. The business meeting will follow at 12:00 with the Awards presentation to follow.

This is also a time to come together to elect new board members. If you have ever considered joining the NDA board, this is the time to throw your hat in the ring!

We are including the score and volunteer forms at the end of this issue, to make sure we can celebrate you and your horse's success at the banquet!

We can't wait to see you!
