Letter from Your Editor

Dear NDA Members and Friends,

With Memorial Day weekend's 39th annual Cornhusker Classic down in the books, this has already been an incredible show season for NDA. With this issue, we want to celebrate you, the members and competitors, with stories and photos of the Classic along with each show's results. A keepsake of your 2016 show season, because there is so much growth to be celebrated both as individual competitors and as an organization.

I was fortunate enough to be a volunteer at this year's Classic and used my time around the grounds to talk to members and enjoy the atmosphere. I felt so encouraged by the number of volunteers who participated to make our show such a successful event. From the unique classes themselves to meeting new people at the competitor's party, there was truly something at the Classic for everyone to enjoy and I loved hearing your comments about the event. Hopefully you will enjoy reading this issue as much as I enjoyed talking to you all.

If you enjoyed the atmosphere of the show as much as I did, I'm sure you are already looking forward to our 40th celebration Classic next year. Since it is never too early to schedule something in your calendar, next year's Classic will be held May 26-28. We are excited to invite Gwen Ka'awaloa, Dolly Hannon and Debbie Riehl-Rodriguez to be our judges for next year. After this year, I wouldn't miss the 40th Classic for the world!

Gratefully yours,
Michaela Schieffer

“ I really like this venue- it's really convenient how the arenas are so close together, it doesn't make you feel like you will always be late to your class. The manure dumping placement is better than most venues and I really appreciate the convenience of all the cafes here. I would love to see this facility when it is at full capacity and everything is in use.

Seen and Overheard at the Classic

Photos by Michaela Schieffer

With a show the size of the Cornhusker Classic and such a great show atmosphere with our members and guests, there is always more than enough fun to go around. We kept our ears and eyes open this year to share as many spontaneous moments as possible. If you did not get the chance to come to the Classic this year, this is one way you can join in the fun!

The Multi-Purpose Warm-up arena was calm and quiet Saturday afternoon...maybe a little too quiet? Thankfully, a delightful Quinceanera started jamming right next door to wake everyone up and give the horses a nice change in music from their freestyle music. They were probably a bit confused by the drastic tempo change, but a little variety never hurt anyone!

MacKenzie Peer of Overland Park, discussing the importance of warming up your horse in the weeks leading up to a show, "There may have been some exuberant bucking at our first canter transition. Guess that will teach me to make sure I ride her more than two weeks before the show!"

Spotted: The Stillwaters crew creating an island oasis in an empty stall near their horses, complete with high-hanging hammock for that complete Caribbean feeling. The party only paused briefly when the hammock gave Anna Cooper a nice tumble out of the air. Looks like hammock-riding lessons are next on the agenda out at Stillwaters!

Linda Taylor of Pine Hill spent some quality time with her horse making sure her horse Tango had the best tail at the show.

Photos by Topline Photography and Michaela Schieffer

Cutest comment of the show award goes to a little equestrian in the stands watching the Grand Prix events and saying "I'm going to show Grand Prix too! Even if it takes ALL YEAR!" Don't we all wish it only took a mere 12 months, young lady? We all better start training now to keep up with this one!

A rogue shopping cart was spotted at the far end of the Multi-Purpose Warm-up arena slowly rolling alone or pushed by a ghost, giving a few horses quite a startle. Thankfully, someone was along to rescue it before it was the source of too many stories about the Event Center being haunted.

A renegade towel found a new home on Gracia Huenefeld's face during a particularly fun day at the Classic. These towel antics were brought to you by Madison Welker and Raegan Lingenfelter of Stillwaters.

Spotted: A smile as bright as the sun as Casey Blum earned a perfect 10 on a movement riding Eschaton. I think more than one person in the arena had goosebumps after that ride.
