Approval of Previous Meeting Minutes

Minutes from the two previous meetings were reviewed and discussed. A vote was taken to approve both.

Officer Reports

President: The handbook is now live on the website.

Vice President: Jen Weaver reported that she is holding off till the end of the month to get awards. She needs to fill in more information on volunteer hours being submitted.

Secretary: No report.

Treasurer: Diane reports that she has done a deep analysis of the last few years of NDA's finances particularly in relation to the income from the silent auction and cost relating to awards. She reports that she was conservative in her estimate of banquet ticket sales.

The insurance policy for the board may be coming due shortly.

Committee Reports __

Awards: See Vice President's report

Competitions: The new date for the Schooling Show Championships show is November 15, 2025 with a clinic to be held at Coda Cavallo on November 16. The judge is Marie Maloney.

Jennifer reports that the judges for the 2026 Cornhusker Classic are engaged.

Education: There is still interest in getting the area trainers together and each donate an hour of instruction for a fund-raising event as well as education. There was discussion about possibly holding 2 clinics. Jennifer said she would discuss with Danny Urban and Linda will talk to Sybil Greene.

Finance: See Treasurer

Fundraising: See education.

Membership and Horse Registration: Jen Weaver is a possible replacement for Angie McClelland.

Publicity: This is now being billed to NDA instead of to Jena Vogt.

Volunteer Committee: We will need volunteers for the SSCS.

Junior/Youth: There were some ideas discussed for activities.

Equipment Management: Some of the needed repairs have been done to the trailer and Ken Timmerman has been reimbursed. The trailer still needs a new floor.

Western Dressage: Kathy Lewis will be competing at the World Western Dressage Show.

Old Business: None

Ad Hoc SafeSport – place holder

New Business: There was a brief discussion of the Award celebration. We have to hold annual meeting per the bylaws to elect new officers.

Next Meeting:

The next meeting will take place on October 13, 2025 at the Walt Library at 6:30 pm.

Adjournment

Respectfully submitted by:

Laureen Van Norman

NDA Secretary
